

CS351N

DECT Cordless Headset System

Call Centre Managers & Staff & other Heavy Headset Users.

Office professionals with phone-intensive responsibilities can now answer or end calls while moving about the office—in unmatched comfort and with premium audio quality. The CS351N combines the clarity of traditional corded technology with the mobility of wireless, so conversations can continue away from a desk phone. The CS351n also features a noise cancelling microphone to help reduce background clutter.
